

CAPETOWN 2008

BRAVO TO UNI

UNI TRAINED I6 PARTICIPANTS FROM DIFFERENT AFRICAN COUNTRIES

UNI TRAINED I6 PARTICIPANTS FROM DIFFERENT AFRICAN COUNTRY

In order to bridge communication gaps and to assist affiliates to own their own website, UNI came up with a project called AFRICAEFUTURE. The recent which came up in April in Capetown, South Africa started in the last quarter of year 2007 when a pre-selection form was sent out to their Africa affiliates. A participant was selected from some Africa affiliates of UNI who were in dare need of a website but could not afford it.

After the selection has been made then, the processing follows for some Africa countries that needed entry visa to get into South Africa, invitations and some other necessary documents were prepared by UNI to present at the Embassy.

However, the scheduled date came and the participants in Fountains Hotel (one of the best in Capetown). On the 9th of April 11th we were hosted in Fountains Hotel and also taking around to catch fun. UNI you are too much, big thanks to you

SOME OF THE ACTIVITIES OF CAPETOWN

- COMMUNICATORS FORUM
- INTERRACTIVE SESSION
- E-FUTURE TRAINIG
- A SUMPTOUS DINNER AT MAMA AFRICA RESTAURANT
- VISIT TO WATERFRONT/RIDE IN A PRIVATE CATAMARAN.

All the participants had a nice trip and enjoyed themselves.

Participants should not see the trip as an excursion but should share in the vision and mission of UNI by building the websites to enable other African countries get such gesture from UNI.
